

MOSLER LOFTS AWARDS & RECOGNITION

- Seattle Homes and Lifestyles Top 100 people, places and things 2006
- International Summit Award, Bronze (2006)
- Totem Award (2006)
- Top Twenty golf courses in Northwest Washington (2006, 2007), Northwest Business Monthly
- NAIOP, Finalist (2007)
- Northwest Homes lists Mosler Lofts in their Best of Homes 2008 edition
- Pillars of the Industry Awards (NAHB), Best High-Rise Condominium Community and Community of the year for Mosler Lofts (2008)
- Golden Nugget Awards (PCBC), Best Project of the Year, Best Sustainable Community, and Best Attached Project – High-Rise for Mosler lofts (2008)
- First Dual LEED® Certified Building in the State of Washington (2008)
- First Gold LEED® Certified Condominium High-Rise in Seattle (2008)
- [Mosler Lofts is] “The most interesting and provocative residential high-rise to appear in Seattle since World War II.” –The Seattle PI (2007)
- Featured in Seattle Architecture, A Walking Guide to Downtown (2007)
- [Mosler Lofts] “...has helped increase demand for sustainable living throughout the city and the region and has inspired other developers to follow suit.” –Mayor Gregory J. Nickels, City of Seattle (2007)
- “I commend The Schuster Group and Mithun Architects for their integrity and sound stewardship. Their commitment to energy efficiency, innovation, and environmentally responsible business practices benefits us all.” –Governor Christine O. Gregoire, Washington State (2007)
- [Mosler Lofts is] “one of the most environmentally sustainable, urban-residential developments in the region – The Mosler Lofts will not only bring more residents downtown, but also keep Seattle at the forefront of the nation’s Built Green movement.” –Seattle Homes and Lifestyles (2006)